food. He is no lover of good things whose mouth will not water when he smells the sweet savor and views the pleasant sight of a dish of tender onions boiled in a rich gravy of butter and cream. The juicy beetroot, the one meat in which we never tire, is more palatable, if possible, when richly garnished with redolent and appetizing fried onions. An innocent and artless young girl will dare, at times, to indulge in the seductive spring variety, "beet or no beet."

The onion's field of usefulness is large and capable of further cultivation. Some day the pungent and penetrating aroma may be successfully used as a means of defense against the clamorous bug agent, or the pernicious life insurance agent. Street car conductors have already made use of this quality in dissuading delicate passengers from waiting on their change. Nowhere in the vegetable kingdom can we find fruit or flower that possesses the sentimental interest and the varied powers that pertain to the onion.

THE WHISKY WAR.

At Weston—Vale Fly Has something to say of the Recent Excitement.

THE Editor of the Intelligence.
SIR:—Perhaps a few facts concerning the indignation meeting held at Weston, on the 14th, to pass resolutions condemning the action of the Town Council for their act in amending the whisky ordinance might not be inappropriate.

The Town Council of Weston was elected as a license council, with a full understanding with the saloonists that in the event the County Court would grant licenses they would keep the necessary preliminary permits; and even went so far as to grant these with the hope that the County Court would regard the wishes of the people of the town. The court refused to do so, and a kind of negative was put upon the license sale in the town of Weston. This was never looked into by its Mayor until following the ideas of Louis Bennett, Prosecuting Attorney, who has always openly and avowedly held that the Mayor's office, and not the Circuit Court, was the most practical and speedy place to suppress this traffic. Complaints were made before W. W. Brannon, who had just been appointed to succeed Hon. Andrew Minnison, resigned.

He now seeks to ride on the strong tide of popular feeling that is rising in the country. Seeing that his reckless decisions and fearing the reaction that is taking place among the real law and order people, he has been in daily conference with the saloonists and within the last few days has made apologies to them, telling T. G. Dawson that if he now desired he could not at least fifty cases against a perpetrator. Brannon, who was appointed to succeed Hon. Andrew Minnison, resigned.

BREAKFAST BUDGET.

The oyster season promises well.

Water spouts occur almost daily off Key West.

St. Augustine's new hotel will cost $2,000,000.

A Magnolia (Iowa) canary bird died recently aged 25 years on the 12th inst.

There is a Congressional candidate in Michigan by the name of Lovely.

At the end of March, 1886, the British national debt was about $3,722,070,540.

The largest hotel in the world at Rockaway Beach stands vacant this season.

In Prohibition towns in Georgia, bottles of whisky are concealed in watermelons.

There are eleven thousand applications for places before the Secretary of the Interior.

Old time hostess says that the Missouri River in Dakota is lower now than it has been before in twenty-eight years.

Jewelry manufacture in Providence, R. I., which has been practically dead for five years, is enjoying a boom, the greatest since 1881.

The stove pipe can be cleaned by putting a piece of wire on the coals of a hot fire.

The vapor produced carries off the soot by chemical decomposition.

Carp is used by Hartford, Conn., to keep the city reservoirs clean. The fish have completely cleaned one reservoir of vegetable growth, and are now at work upon a second.

Gristle farming is attaining prominence in California. At a recent picking on an ostrich farm fifty pounds of feathers were obtained, worth $160 per pound, or $8,000 for the pick.

A Naugatuck man saw something green in a cake of ice and split the cake open.

The green thing was a small frog, which ate an hour and two in the sunlight hopped about vigorously.

A Healthy Body and a Clear Head.

If indigestion, constipation and biliousness torment the body, the head cannot be clear.

Disorders rooted upon the brain most hurtfully, and produce a cloudiness in the organ of thought not experienced by a healthy man.

Happily these brain-oppressing maladies may be entirely dispelled by that perfect alternative, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which cleans, cools and invigorates the brain and nerves, while it regulates the organs of digestion, assimilation and blood secretion.

As a cathartic it never irritates, but cleanses the system through the bowels and urinary passages, and exerts a powerful tonic influence upon the whole system.
